They'll be off in the Brooklyn Handithe barrier, the pounding of hoofs, the strain in the stretch, the last supreme effort at the wire and, another of the historic handicaps will have passed into history.

Although the field that will face the starter is not up to the Brooklyn Handicap class of many of the years that are passed, the race promises to be interesting. Banastar, the hero of many a hard fought battle on the track and the idol of a great percentage of New York's racegoers, is the favorite, but the handicappers have picked out other probable winners and speculation prom-

DOWIE BURIED CHILD.

Earl Pierson's Body Taken to the Grave by Mother Almost Alone. Earl Pierson, the eight-year-old son of Mrs. J. Luther Pierson, the faith curist, was buried to-day in Kensico Cemetery. The child's father is in jail for refusing the little patient medical attendance. The funeral expenses were sent to the undertaker by John Alexander Dowle, the "Zion" leader, of Chicago, who is himself under arrest on a charge similar to that against Pierson.

Dowle owns the plot in which the child was buried.

Mrs. Pierson and her two remaining children alone accompanied the body to the prominents at 10 East Sevential tenth street. The company assigned to J. Quintus Cohes. et 51 Nassau street.
